Dear [Redacted]

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2025/00391

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 9 June, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email, you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

"Could I please make an FOI request for the Post Office's response/submission to the Ministry of Justice consultation on private prosecutions and the Single Justice Procedure?"

Oversight and regulation of private prosecutors in the criminal justice system -

GOV.UK<<https://www.gov.uk/government/consultations/oversight-and-regulation-of-private-prosecutors-in-the-criminal-justice-system>>

I would like to see any formal submissions to the consultation, which ran from March to May 8 this year."

We can confirm that Post Office does not hold the information you have requested.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire SK9 5AF
