Dear [Redacted]

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/00580

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 10 April, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“Could you please provide the total & total variable remuneration for postmasters in financial year 23/24?”

Following Clarification:

Please provide:

The total fixed remuneration, total variable remuneration and overall total. For financial year 23/24”

We can confirm that Post Office does hold the information you have requested, however we are exempt from providing it to you under section 22(1)(1) of FOIA as it is intended for future publication.

Looking at your request, Post Office can confirm that the fixed, variable, and overall total remuneration for postmasters will be published within our Annual Report and Accounts (ARA) on our website and at Companies House on the following links: Post Office Corporate Site & Post Office Company House. You will note that we publish this information on an annual basis. For context, the 22/23 Annual Report and Accounts were published in December 2023.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:
