Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/00273

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 6 February, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”). We sincerely apologise for the delay in responding to your request for information.

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“I would like a copy of any and all documents you have in relation to the investigation into the [REDACTED] post office in [REDACTED], in 2004.

We can confirm that Post Office does hold the information you have requested.

However, Post Office has determined that this information should be withheld under sections 40(2) and 40(3) of the FOIA, as the information constitutes personal data relating to other persons. These sections exempt personal information from disclosure if that information relates to someone other than the applicant, and if disclosure of that information would breach any of the data protection principles in Article 5(1) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We also consider that disclosure of this information is likely to breach the first data protection principle, which provides that personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner.
