Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/00862

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 28 May, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“I would like to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act. I would like to know who the subpostmaster was for the sub post office on Rupert Street, Lower Pilsley, Chesterfield, S45 8DB in the 1990s, when the village shop on Rupert Street incorporated a post office and was run by an [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]”

We confirm that Post Office does hold the information that you have requested, but we have decided that the information should be withheld under sections 40(2) and 40(3A) of the FOIA as the information constitutes personal data relating to other persons. These sections exempt personal information from disclosure if that information relates to someone other than the applicant, and if disclosure of that information would breach any of the data protection principles in Article 5(1) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We consider that disclosure of this information is likely to breach the first data protection principle, which provides that personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner. Disclosure would not constitute 'fair' processing of the personal data because this information relates to a postmaster who would not reasonably expect their name to be disclosed in relation to this request for information.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
