Dear [Redacted]

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/00778

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 9 May, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“Please tell me how many freedom of information requests you have received since January 1 2024 until May 9 2024.”

We can confirm that Post Office does hold the information you have requested.

From 1 January to 9 May 2024, not including your email, we have received 309 Freedom of Information requests.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:
