Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/00339

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 21 February, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”). We sincerely apologise for the delay our response.

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“Did the Post Office tell David Cameron in 2016 when Prime Minister, about the problems with the Horizon Computer System?. (as reported in various News outlets).

And can You please publish the communication between David Cameron and The Post Office, regarding this?. Or will You continue to cover up this scandal?.”

We can confirm that Post Office does not hold the information you have requested.

We carried out a search of our electronic records during the period David Cameron was Prime Minister in 2016 (1 January 2016 – 13 July 2016) and were unable to locate any correspondence between Post Office and David Cameron.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
