Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2025/00258

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 14 April, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email, you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

"I am writing to request the following information:

- 1. The most recent data available on the number of employees of Fujitsu which were also working inside the Post Office in the years 2024 and 2025 so far.
- 2. Please clarify which department each employee worked at within the Post Office.
- 3. For each employee, if possible, please clarify how much they were paid annually in their role at the Post Office. If a job description and job title can be provided for each employee, please do that too.
- 4. If the time/cost of doing so does not exceed the threshold below which you're required to respond, please provide me with the most recent data (1-3) for the year 2023, too."

We can confirm that Post Office does not hold the information you have requested. There were no Fujitsu employees working inside Post Office as contracted staff or embedded resource in the years 2023, 2024 and 2025 so far.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:
