Dear [Redacted],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/01015

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 16 July 2024, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“For as far back as your records permit can you confirm how many copies of Computer Weekly you have a subscription for or are they bought as needed on an ad-hoc basis?”

Do you have a circulation list for the subscription or a distribution list for those purchased ad-hoc?”

We can confirm that Post Office does not hold the information you have requested. Computer Weekly is available as a free digital PDF download and the following link explains the move to digital access:

<https://www.computerweekly.com/news/1280095715/Computer-Weekly-marks-the-end-of-an-era-as-a-new-one-begins>. We also do not hold Computer Weekly or its parent company TechTarget as a supplier in our finance system.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire SK9 5AF
