Dear [Redacted],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/01084

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 2 August, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

“Which external law firm is advising Post Office Limited on the data breach that affected the original 555 claimants from the group litigation when the Post Office published their names and addresses in June 2024?”

We can confirm that Post Office does hold the information you have requested. The external law firm that is advising Post Office in this matter is DAC Beachcroft.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
