Dear [Redacted],

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2024/00204

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 26 January, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”). We sincerely apologise for the delay in our response.

In your email you have requested the information shown verbatim in bold below:

- “1. Can you confirm the specific date, (including day, month and year) the Post Office entered officially, legally, into a standstill agreement with Fujitsu.
- 2. Please can you provide copies of all letter / email correspondence between the Chief Executive of the Post Office, Nick Read, and Victoria Atkins, former Treasury financial secretary, in the last 12 months.”

We can confirm that Post Office does hold some of the information you have requested.

We can confirm that Post Office entered into a Standstill Agreement with Fujitsu on 28 May 2020.

We do not hold any correspondence between Post Office Chief Executive, Nick Read, and Victoria Atkins within the time period specified in your information request (i.e., between 26 January 2023-26 January 2024).

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:
